Suffolk Region Sponsors and Participates in the Following Events

Officers' Roundtable (a.k.a. New Officer's Training) was held via Zoom over multiple days in June 2021: June 15th was Treasurers and Council Presidents; June 16th was Presidents and Vice Presidents in a combined session; and June 17th was Secretaries. These virtual training sessions were reported to be informative and positive.

The 25th Annual Suffolk-By-The-Sea was held via Zoom over multiple days in July 2021: The following workshops were presented on July 9, 2021- SEPTA and What is So Special About Special Education, Membership Your Way, and What is Advocacy and How Can PTA Play a Part. The workshops presented on July 10, 2021 were- Conflict and Resolution, Exploring the NYS PTA Resource Guide, Social Media in the PTA, and The School Board. Finally, on July 11, 2021, the following workshops were presented- Parliamentary Procedures: Why Should We Have to be so Formal?, Nominations and Elections: It's a Mystery to Me, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, and Bylaws. The virtual training sessions were reported to be informative and positive.

NYS Summer Leadership Conference was held virtually on July 21, 2021. Attendee feedback was that it was an informative and very good experience.

Board of Managers Orientation and Training was held in person at Sequoya High School on August 12, 2021. The Suffolk Region PTA Executive Committee facilitated the training for new and returning Chairpersons, Assistant Directors, Executive Assignees and Council Presidents.

Membership and Reflections Kick-Off Training was not held this year to ensure the safety of our members due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Arts in Education Showcase was held virtually via Zoom on September 23, 2021. Suffolk Region PTA Arts in Education Chair, Alyson Bass, facilitated the forum and the presentations were well-received. The Arts in Education Directory is posted on the Suffolk Region PTA website.

Fall Conference was held in person on Thursday, October 21, 2021 at Sequoya High School. The following workshops were presented: Advocacy- A Roadmap to Success, Treasurer Best Practices, Nominations and Elections, and ABC's of Compliance. All workshops were reported to be very informative.

NYS PTA Convention was held in person in Syracuse, NY as well as virtually on November 19th – 21st, 2021. There were live as well as virtual workshops, trainings, networking and a live as well as virtual exhibit hall. It was an amazing event; although the weekend was an informative, productive and successful experience.

Presidents' and Principals' Dinner although planned, was unfortunately not held due to a surge in COVID-19. Therefore, the following 2021-2022 awards were not presented:

2021 PARP AWARD

Peg Davis Leadership Award

Ted Brigham Teacher of the Year Award

Danielle Alduino Scholarship Award

Distinguished Service Award

Winter Workshops were held virtually via Zoom this year over three (3) days in February 2022: On February 2nd the workshops presented were- Nominations & Elections, Getting Students More Involved with the PTA, and Ethical Leadership; On February 5th the following workshop was presented- School Boards and Budgets- An Insider View; and finally, on February 9th Kyle Belokopitsky, NYS PTA Executive Director, presented a Child Protection workshop. Feedback was very positive for these virtual training sessions.

Longwood Legislative Breakfast was held virtually on February 5, 2022. It was recorded and available to be viewed. The financial stresses that the COVID-19 pandemic has caused the school districts on Long Island along with budget, federal guidelines for funding and economic disadvantage status, NYS funding were topics as well as student mental health and the funding of universal school meals. Although it was held virtually, it was well attended and provided a tremendous amount of information.

Legislative Summit (and Lobby) was held virtually on February 16, 2022 via Zoom. The sessions and issue briefs were:

- The Pandemic and Schools: What's Next, and What Can PTAs do to Help
- Universal School Meals and Food Insecurity
- School Aid and Support for Students, Pre-K and Childcare
- Student Mental Health

- Digital and Technology Equity and Access
- Training: Taking Action with NYS PTA Breakout Groups.

Attendees report it was a great training day.

Western Suffolk BOCES and the Eastern Suffolk BOCES Showcases and Dinners were not held this year to ensure the safety of our members due to COVID-19 pandemic. We were again disappointed that we were not able to enjoy the delicious dinner prepared by the culinary students nor hear about the amazing programs offered. But again, despite these unprecedented circumstances, Suffolk PTA is proud award scholarships to students from both Western Suffolk BOCES and Eastern Suffolk BOCES. The recipient from Eastern Suffolk BOCES was Ileonette Amaya, and the Western Suffolk BOCES recipient was Alexandria Colley.

Reflections Showcase & Ceremony: The theme for the 2021/2022 year was “I Will Change the World By...”. This year submissions were done virtually and amazingly there were numerous entries. Suffolk Region was fortunate to have 105 entries move onto the NYS level resulting in:

The PTA Store continues to offer a vast variety of PTA pins and other PTA items for sale. Please reach out to Suffolk Region if units need to order any PTA pins or other PTA related items.

Meet the Candidate nights were held both in person and virtually this year by many districts with Suffolk Region moderating. It is reported they were successful and informative.

Respectfully Submitted,
Heather Lang and Wendy Natalone
Suffolk Region PTA Historian and Corresponding Secretary
